Dear Colleagues,

On July 16, 2009, the UC Regents approved the enactment of furloughs for faculty on all the UC campuses. Although an FAQ page has been posted on the UCOP website, many additional questions have been raised about what furloughs actually mean for faculty. The most substantial of these include:

- How will faculty furloughs impact instruction?
- Will faculty be able to make up lost income through additional consulting on furlough days? [This would require a temporary revision of the APM.]
- Will faculty be able to use grant funds to pay their salary on furlough days during the calendar period in which they are supported by state funds?
- Will there be a mechanism for documenting the use of furlough days by faculty?

Since June, the UCLA Academic Senate and administration have discussed furlough-related issues extensively at the local and system-wide levels. We are expecting to receive answers to the above questions very soon.

In order to provide up-to-date information on these issues directly and quickly, the Senate and Executive Vice Chancellor/Provost Scott L. Waugh will be convening a Faculty Town Hall Meeting.

What: Faculty Town Hall Meeting
When: Wednesday, August 26, 2009, from 12:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.
Where: California Room, Faculty Center
Who: All UCLA Senate Faculty

We strongly encourage all Senate Faculty to attend, and to use this session as an opportunity to pose whatever questions you may have to the campus leadership.

Beverages will be served; and you are welcome to bring a brown bag lunch.

Sincerely,

Michael S. Goldstein    Robin L. Garrell
UCLA Academic Senate Chair    Senate Vice-Chair/Chair-Elect
