RE: Response to UC Financial Aid Proposal for Regents

Dear Professor Goldstein:

The UC Financial Aid Proposal for Regents was discussed at the Council on Planning and Budget meeting on January 26, 2009.

Regrettably, no one, including the student representatives, felt that they had a sufficiently informed understanding of the ways in which the UC system disbursed financial aid. Moreover, due to the time constraints in which we were asked to respond, we were unable to invite an appropriate administrator to inform the council. CPB therefore could not reach a firm opinion on the proposal to implement this new program for students whose parental/care-givers' income was less than $60,000 per annum.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Chair, Council on Planning and Budget
